Important! Please note that the samples will not be returned to the sender and that they will be destroyed within 2 months after the selection committee meeting, unless it has been decided by the Art Directors to use them for the show trend forums. They will then be given to a fashion school if not otherwise notified in writing by the exhibitor.

Please note all shipping charges, customs duties and taxes are to be paid by the sender. Please note that we will not be able to accept any parcels for which the charges haven't been paid.

Consequently, samples will not be considered for the Selection Committee.
